

How do I contact Nottinghamshire children's Services?

Multi-Agency Safeguarding Hub (MASH)

1. online form: concerned about a child.
2. online form: concerned about an adult.
3. telephone: 0300 500 80 90.
4. professional consultation line regarding children: 0115 977 4247 (see MASH consultation line guidance [PDF] for details)
5. fax: 01623 483295.

Safeguarding update to parents

February 2024

Children's services - Find a liaison officer

Overview Lincolnshire Children's Services do not accept referrals or general enquiries via email, we operate a telephone-only service.

If you have a query or wish to report a safeguarding concern, contact 01522 782111 (Monday to Friday, 8am to 6pm). For out-of-hours emergencies, call 01522 782333.

If you require the Children's Services Safeguarding liaison officer, see below details.

Please do not send safeguarding referrals to the below e-mail address as they may not be processed.

Contact name Laura Bonner

Job title Head of Service at Lincolnshire County Council

Address County Offices
Newland
Lincoln
LN1 1YL

Contact number To report a safeguarding concern please contact 01522 782111 (Monday to Friday, 8am to 6pm).

If you have a safeguarding concern about a child, young person or adult; please contact the relevant authority.

The Designated Safeguarding Leaders in school are Ben Carver, Ben Barnard and Sarah Eagle—these can be contacted with any concerns but in the event of an emergency, please contact the relevant authorities.

Do not hesitate to contact the police if you have any concerns about a person being in immediate danger.

Due to being on the border of Lincolnshire, the contact number for Lincolnshire Children's Services has also been included for your information.